

The ADAP Advocacy Association hosted a wine tasting benefit in Washington, D.C. on Thursday, June 26, 2008, at Jurys Washington Hotel. The benefit was sponsored by SunTrust Bank, Bender Consulting, Tibotec Therapeutics, Title II Community AIDS National Network (TIICANN) and the law firm of Powers, Pyles, Sutter & Verville, P.C. The following are photos from the event.

[Photo] - ADAP Advocacy Association's CEO Brandon Macsata describes aaa+ mission.

[Photo] - ADAP Advocacy Association's CEO, Brandon Macsata, presents first ADAP Champion Award to Ben Tesdahl of Powers, Pyles, Sutter & Verville, P.C. with aaa+ board member John D. Kemp looking on.

[Photo] - ADAP Advocacy Association's CEO, Brandon Macsata, presents first ADAP Champion Award to Ben Tesdahl of Powers, Pyles, Sutter & Verville, P.C.

[Photo] - Delegate Donna Christian-Christensen (D-Virgin Islands) speaks about the ADAP Advocacy Association and ongoing AIDS issues.

[Photo] - Senator Richard Burr (R-North Carolina) speaks about PEPFAR, as well as commends the ADAP Advocacy Association for its leadership.

[Photo] - ADAP Champion Award.

[Photo] - Display of wines.

[Photo] - Delegate Donna Christian-Christensen (D-Virgin Islands) speaks about the ADAP Advocacy Association and ongoing AIDS issues.

[Photo] - ADAP Advocacy Association's Board Co-Chair Bill Arnold (of TIICANN) talks about ongoing access to care issues.

[Photo] - Supporters of the ADAP Advocacy Association enjoying the wine tasting benefit.

[Photo] - More supporters enjoying the wine.